

Hildebrand

Family Self-Help Center, Inc.

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE: March 31, 2025

Contact: Alyssa Bogosian, Development Manager
abogosian@hild-selfhelp.org, 617-491-5752

HILDEBRAND FAMILY SELF-HELP CENTER, INC. APPOINTS HADARYAH T. MORGAN, ESQ. AS ITS NEXT CEO

CAMBRIDGE, MA – Hildebrand Family Self-Help Center, Inc. announced that Hadaryah T. Morgan, Esq., will serve as the nonprofit’s next Chief Executive Officer beginning on April 7, 2025. She succeeds Michael Hughes, Chief Financial Officer, who served as Acting CEO following the retirement of Shiela Y. Moore in December 2024.

Hadaryah T. Morgan, Esq. brings significant experience in the field of affordable housing, housing justice, and homelessness. With over 15 years of legal experience, Ms. Morgan most recently served as the Chief Operating Officer and General Counsel for the Center of Urban Community Services (CUCS), a non-profit organization with a $100 million-dollar budget and more than 600 employees focused on developing affordable housing and providing integrated programs that link housing, health and social services for homeless and low-income individuals and families in New York City. At CUCS, Ms. Morgan focused on supportive housing development and the development of purpose-built shelters, commercial, real estate, and labor and employment law.

“Hadaryah is a visionary leader who is excited to lead Hildebrand into its next chapter,” said Jessica Howe, Chair of Hildebrand’s Board of Directors. “With her background, expertise, and commitment to our mission and values, Hadaryah is well-positioned to lead Hildebrand toward continued impact and growth.”

Prior to her work at CUCS, Ms. Morgan served as the Deputy General Counsel of Operations and Legal Services for the New York City Department of Homeless Services (DHS), an agency with a then $1.1 billion-dollar budget, 2,200 employees, and over 700 facilities including shelter and supportive housing. She holds a J.D. from Northeastern University, and served as Chair of the Board of Directors and Chair of the Audit Committee at Collegiate Churches of New York.

“I am deeply passionate about working towards Hildebrand’s vision that every family has a home, and I’m honored to join the organization as its next CEO,” said Hadaryah T. Morgan, Esq., Chief Executive Officer. “As rates of family homelessness in Massachusetts continue to rise, I am eager to work together with Hildebrand’s staff and Board to grow the organization’s impact.”

Hildebrand

Family Self-Help Center, Inc.

Hildebrand Family Self-Help Center, Inc. is a nonprofit organization with a mission to transition families out of homelessness to safe, affordable, permanent housing while working to disrupt systems that lead to poverty and homelessness. Its vision is that every family has a home. Hildebrand operates emergency shelter, permanent housing, and a continuum of support for Greater Boston families experiencing homelessness that includes comprehensive case management and stabilization services. To learn more about Hildebrand, visit hild-selfhelp.org.

###